Happy New Year!

I wanted to show you the drawings first so I'll say this on the last page~ The new year is upon us and the assistants are off right now, but in order to stick to my promise of releasing until the end of the year, I'm still in my office fighting hard! Some readers want me to update faster but to be honest I'm already working my hardest. To maintain quality, I do almost everything myself! From chapter nine and on, I'll also have to write the script myself! 48 pages a month is pretty much the maximum pace at which I am able to release. Of course it might improve if I am able to find an assistant (I'm requesting again~)

2015 is the year of the sheep~ he he, it really seems to related to me (After all, my pen name is Brother Sheep)~ I wish for everyone to be healthy and successful in the coming year!

(Oops, sorry for being old-fashioned)
I also wish for myself to be healthy as I am the centerpiece of the battlefield! I would greatly appreciate it if the readers of Mowang Yu Yongzhe Yu Shenjian Shendian join our official QQ group: 383562414~
